Forward

The year of 1953 brings to a close many years of happiness, play and work for the Seniors of Upper High. Yet it is only the beginning for many of us.

We, the members of the annual staff, present for you, the Indian Village Yearbook.

The theme for the yearbook is not a look at the future as are so many, but a brief glimpse at the era in which our parents were graduated from high school. Known as the "Roaring Twenties", this era is remembered as that of the flappers, the bell-bottom trousers, and the Charleston.

We have made mistakes and errors, but we humbly hope that you will understand and that you will receive a little happiness and pleasure in leafing through the pages of this, your "Indian Village."

A vote of thanks must go to Mr. Koenig, the advisor, whose work and patience helped to make this book possible, and to Richard Stansbery, the untiring business manager.

We sincerely hope that the memories you will receive will warm your heart.

DEDICATION

With humblesness and pride we dedicate this Indian Village annual to our teacher and friend, Mr. Charles Hood.

His cheerfulness, guidance, and patience with us for the past four years have truly been appreciated.

As the senior class advisor, Mr. Hood has never failed to take time out from his numerous duties to hear and to help solve our problems.

Therefore, we express our gratitude for the many ways he has helped us; and we wish for Mr. Hood the best of everything in the years ahead.

We are the senior girls,
We wear our hair in curls;
We always do our best,
We're full of zim and zest.

We wear our dungarees
Rolled up above our knees.
We always go for men,
Especially some of them.

We are the senior boys,
We can make lots of noise;
And of ourselves we are proud,
We shall shout our praises loud.

We wear our Sunday shirts,
And boy—are we flirts!
We really go for girls,
Especially ones with curls.

We are the senior class,
We're really full of sass;
But always on the beam
While working as a team.

We live up on the top,
And so we can't be stopped;
We'll fight for victory,
Go down in history.

On the evening of Friday, April 17, in the high school auditorium, the seniors presented, Strange Boarders, a mystery-comedy. It was under the direction of Mr. Donald Olin.

The fun began when two lady crooks, posing as teachers, take a room at Cordelia Tuttle's boarding house and use it as a hideaway. One by one the whole gang arrives, and searches the boarding house for the money which they had stolen from a bank in Boston. The play ends when Cordelia and her friends capture the robbers and collect the reward. Cordelia then has enough money to send her two girls to school, and everyone is happy.

CLASS HISTORY

After electing their capable and popular officers, president Kenneth McClain, vice-president Carolyn Kotterman, and secretary-treasurer Bill Mahaffey, the juniors quickly got back into the swing of things. So much has happened this year that it has been a big job for them to take part in all things and to keep their grades up besides.

The first outstanding event of the year was their class play, Who's Crazy Now? It was directed by Frederic Criner, and was presented to a capacity crowd on November 21.

The juniors have been in charge of the refreshment stand at the football and basketball games. With the money earned from these and the class play, they presented the biggest event of the year—the annual all-night prom in honor of the seniors.

Another memorable occasion was the junior class party which was held on February 3, with every member of the class enjoying himself immensely.

Mrs. Caves and Mr. Ebenhack were their class sponsors, and a lot of credit goes to them for helping the juniors have a successful year. Now the class feels that they are almost ready to take over the exciting job of being seniors.

One of the finest honors that can be bestowed upon a boy or a girl when he or she becomes a Junior is a part in the Junior Class play; and truly each member of the cast lived up to the honor. For on the night of November twenty-one, 1952, the Juniors presented Who's Crazy Now?, an excellent interpretation of what happens to teachers after they have taught too long. This play was written by Gerald Bell.

Throughout the play, the scene was the Sunnyvale Insane Asylum, an institution for crazy teachers. During the first act, Miss Ware, the young niece of one of the doctors, visits the asylum and mistakes an insane patient for a doctor. This mistaken doctor, with the aid of Miss Ware and the slap-happy encouragement of the teachers, attempts to operate on one of the real doctors.

Confusion and hilarity reign throughout the second and third acts as the crazy doctor is caught and Miss Ware falls in love with the young, sane doctor. The play ends with everyone happy, including the audience, which enjoyed this wonderful play thoroughly.

CLASS HISTORY

Now that they are considered upperclassmen, the sophomores have tried to prove themselves worthy of this honor. They realize it takes more studying and less playing around to be a good student.

Soon after school began, the following capable officers were elected by the class: president, Nancy Ellis; vice-president, David Krebs; secretary, Ruth Roszman; and treasurer, Nancy Whalen. Their advisors are Mr. Criner, Mr. Shaffer, and Mr. Fleeman.

The sophomores sponsored the dance after our first exciting basketball game on November 28. In January they chose their class rings, and are looking forward to next year when they will receive them. Also, on January 21, the sophomores in Tri-Masque club had their first taste of acting. They very ably presented a one-act play, "Billy's First Date".

The last social event of the year was the sophomore class party on April 28, which was enjoyed by every member of the class.

The sophomores are eagerly waiting to step up to the titles of juniors. We wish them much success in their next important year.

CLASS HISTORY

Self-confidence was scarce at first, but the freshmen soon become acquainted with the new subjects and schedule and proceeded to have an exciting year.

Early in the year they elected the following officers: president, Paul Steiner; vice-president, Russel Kear; and secretary-treasurer, Robert Miller.

The class was well represented in school activities, with most of the members taking part in the musical or the athletic organizations.

Mr. Olin and Mr. Koenig, the class sponsors, very capably assisted in making the year a success. The high-light was the class party which was held January 27.

The freshmen have made a fine beginning, and are looking forward to doing even better in the years ahead at Upper High.

During the second chapter of junior high school life, the eighth graders began to learn the "ropes". They studied harder, learned more, and participated in many activities.

To guide them, the class elected John Hunter, Shirley Newell, and Kenneth Graham as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

A hard times party was enjoyed by the class on October 21, and another was held in February.

Much praise can be given to the advisors, Miss Hetzel, and Mr. Conaway, who ably directed their activities.

We wish the class lots of good luck as they look forward to the next chapter of school life, their freshman year at U.S.H.S.

Oh! The thrills of a 7th grader! Being upstairs for the first time to change classes and to have their own lockers was at first strange to them, but they have enjoyed every minute of it.

The honors of president and secretary-treasurer of the class were given to Mary Lou Smith and Bob Swartz.

The class enjoyed their only party April 21. The advisers, Mrs. Tucker and Miss Bell, along with the rest of the faculty and student body feel certain that the seventh graders will prove to be good students of U. S. H. S. in the years ahead.

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Read the Orange and Black that was published this year by the journalism classes.

School news, sports, club news, and gossip are a few of the articles published in the paper. A new addition to the paper this year was the Scholastic Roto.

The paper was published monthly under the supervision of Donald Olin.

QUILL & SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is a national honorary society for high school journalists. The club's finances came from bake sales, and by sponsoring dances after the games.

To climax the year, an annual banquet was held in honor of the new members.

The officers for this year are: Doris Hablitzel, president; Pat Best, vice-president; Margaret Swartz, secretary and treasurer. The organization was under the direction of Donald Olin.

VISUAL ED.

Lana Turner! Bing Crosby! Betty Grable! Robert Taylor. No, these stars don't appear in the movies shown by the Visual Education Department; but those that are shown prove just as interesting as well as educational.

These students, under the direction of Mr. Koenig, ran the projectors for classroom films and the noon movies.

For a small rental fee their services were offered to the local community organizations.

RADIO CLUB

We interrupt this program to bring you the annual report of the Upper Sandusky High School Radio Club.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 4:45, for the past nine months, the students of this club have announced the weekly happenings and events at Upper High.

Announcers are members of the speech classes and are under the direction of Donald Olin.

So from station U.S.H.S., this is your radio reporter signing off.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is now in its seventh year. Under the leadership of our principal, Harold U. Cope, the council has accomplished many things. Among these are the selecting of entertainment for the assembly programs, deciding on school discipline problems, and the sponsoring of dances after athletic events. The special event which the council accomplished with great success was their third annual talent show.

The members of this organization are the presidents or special representatives of all classes and organizations in the high school.

The officers for this year were Dick Stansbery, president; Corinne Gibson, vice-president; Maxine Sammet, secretary; and Margaret Swartz, treasurer.

HI-TEENS

When a girl has reached the status of sophomore at Upper Sandusky High School, she is entitled to join the Hi-Teens club which indeed is quite an honor.

In the fall, the Hi-Teens held a beautiful and impressive candlelight service for the new members. The speaker for the event was the Reverend Andrew Kolarovsky.

The big event which every Hi-Teens girl looks forward to is the big, annual Christmas dance which was held in December. The music was provided by the Robert Paxton orchestra, and a wonderful time was had by all.

Officers for this successful and fun-filled year were Juanita Pfeifer, president; Margaret Swartz, vice-president; Doris Hablitzel, secretary; and Marilyn Nachbar, treasurer. Miss Jean Golling is in charge of the organization.

HI-Y

In accordance with the Hi-Teens, the boys of Upper High form an organization which is known as the Hi-Y. It is under the leadership of Mr. L. V. Ebenhack.

One of the new activities of the club was to hold a presidential election among the high school students. All students from grades nine through twelve were eligible to vote. This election was carried on as a regular election is, with voting places and judges. Many members of the faculty felt that this was a great step toward educating our students in the fundamentals of good government.

Richard Corbin attended the Hi-Y Youth Government program which was held in Columbus in April.

The officers of this year's club were Richard Stansbery, president; Dave Mason, vice-president; Thomas Koehler, secretary; Myron Rife, treasurer; and Dale Walterhouse, chaplain.

The A. O. Suber Future Teachers of America Club of Upper Sandusky High School has had a very successful year. Under the leadership of Mrs. Hazel Caves, the club held their meetings once a month in the library.

Each member earned merit points by helping teachers, grading papers, and by serving as substitute teachers in the elementary grades.

The main objective of the club this year was to organize a county F. T. A. Club. To do this, each of the county schools was visited, and local members talked with county students who were interested in teaching. A number of organization meetings were held in Upper Sandusky. Most of the county schools will be represented in the county group.

The officers for this year were Margaret Swartz, president; Miriam Hale, vice-president; Donna Lind, secretary; Pat Chaney, treasurer.

This is the Silver Anniversary year for the Future Farmers of America. The Upper Sandusky chapter started during the school year of 1935-36 with forty-two members, under the direction of Ralph Van Buren. This chapter has had eighteen state farmers and one American farmer.

This year the F.F.A., under the direction of Mr. John Borton, was managed by the following officers: Kenneth Wolfe, president; George Bowen, vice-president; Allen Ulrich, secretary; Richard Walton, treasurer; David Herring, reporter; and Neil Paulin, sentinel.

Allen Ulrich attended the National Convention at Kansas City this year. Richard Roberts and Allen Ulrich participated in the public speaking contest. The freshman and sophomores received gold ratings in the parliamentary procedure contest.

The social highlight of the year was the annual F.F.A. banquet held in December.

Congratulations, fellows, on your Silver Anniversary.

SENIOR G.A.A.

Don't be alarmed, folks. That wasn't a man from Mars that just passed, it was just one of the girls that is being initiated into the Sr. G.A.A. Yes, the initiates did look rather odd, but it was fun for all, and the girls are now full-fledged members of the organization.

Among the various activities in which they participated were volleyball, basketball, bowling, and ping pong tournaments.

A point system was set up this year by which the girls received credits for participating in the various activities.

The officers for the year were Maxine Sammet, president; Doris Hablitzel, vice-president; Iris Swartz, secretary; June Delaplane, treasurer; Barbara Rowland, Bonnie Rowland, and Phyllis Smith, executive committee.

JUNIOR G.A.A.

This Junior Girls' Athletic Association is composed of girls in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades who took an active part in the Phys. Ed. classes.

The girls were kept busy as they sponsored the checkroom during basketball season, and prepared for the big social event of the year, a dance held in April.

Meetings were held once a month, with many games enjoyed by all after the business meeting.

The officers for this successful year were Nancy Pfeifer, president; Joycelyn Steiner, vice-president; Phyllis Miller, secretary; Nancy Eippert, treasurer; Beverly Newell, program chairman; and club sponsor, Miss Joan Bell.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Curtain! Curtain time! Ladies and gentlemen, we present the newly formed Tri-Masque Dramatics Club under the direction of Donald Olin.

The membership is composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors interested in acting and in the directing of plays.

During the year, each class in the club presented a one act play for the school assemblies, and another for Play Night which was held March 6 in the High School Auditorium. Several members were selected to attend the Dramatics Festival which was held March 28 at Otterbein.

The officers of the club were Jim Truesdell, president; Janet Phillips, vice-president; Carolyn Krebs, secretary and treasurer; Tom Warfel, sophomore representative.

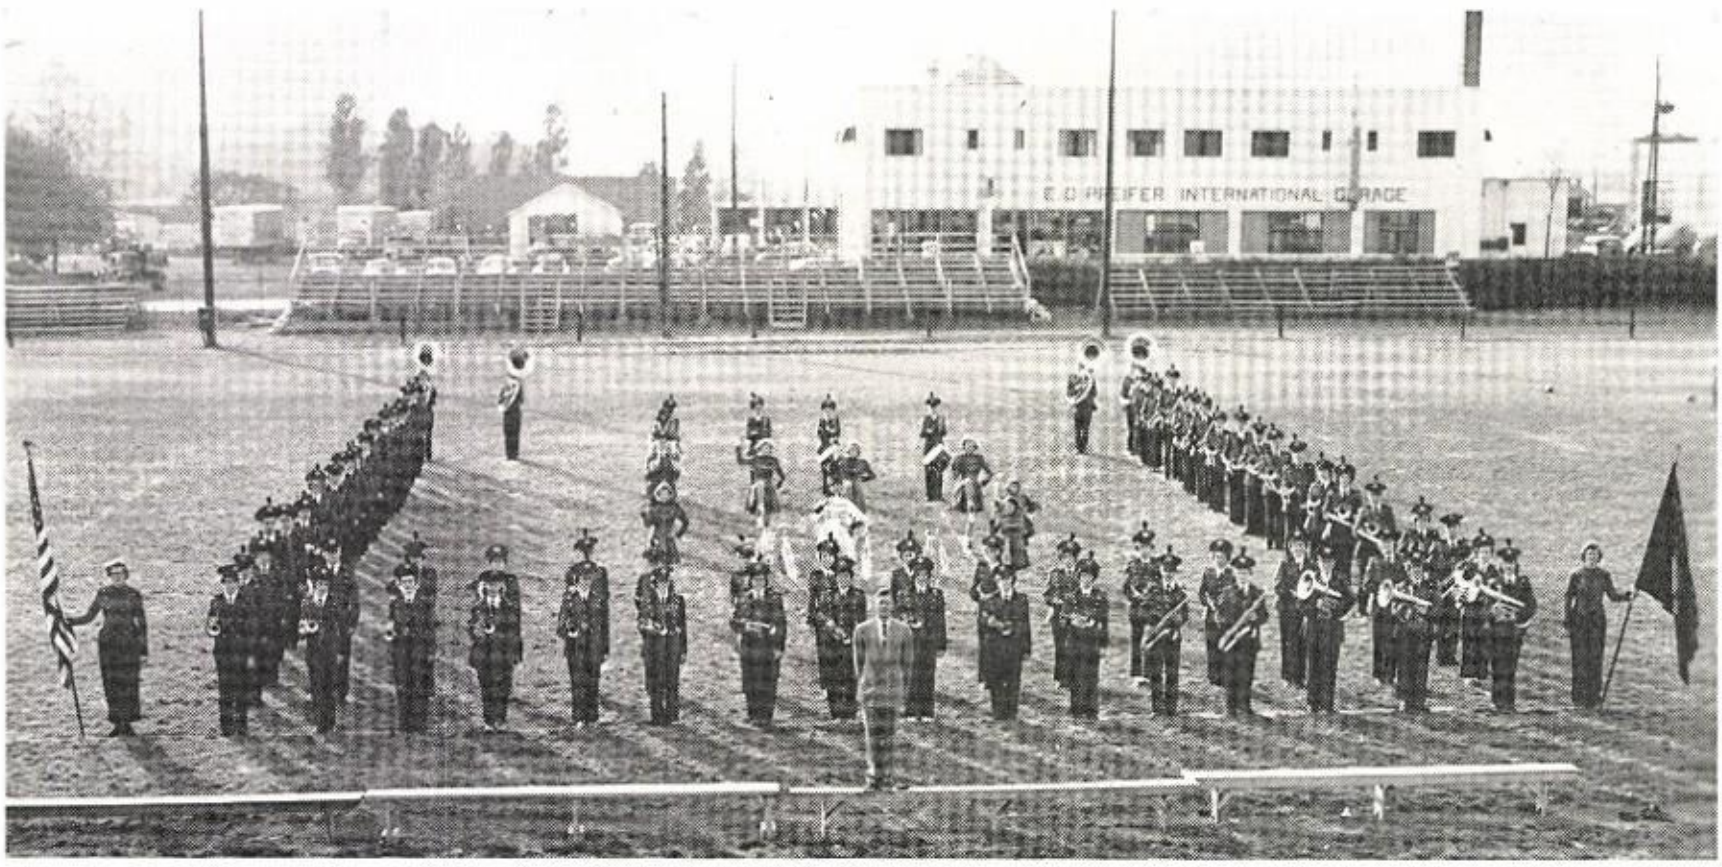
MARCHING BAND



Bang! There goes the gun and here comes the Upper Sandusky High School Band onto the field. Leading them is our Drum Majorette Carolyn Krebs, followed by her assistant majorettes, who are all adorned in their new uniforms.

Yes, the marching band has done an excellent job this year. They have worked hard and long to give the football fans an enjoyable halftime performance. Mr. Faulk, our director, has spent many hours planning formations and writing music. To Mr. Faulk goes a vote of thanks for his consideration and cooperation during this 1952-53 marching season.

CONCERT BAND

Goodness, the roof almost went off the auditorium. It is hard for the band to tone down for concert music after playing football music for three months. But truthfully they have done very well, for they have worked hard for their concerts and for the usual festival which was held at Crestline. The band festival ended the year very successfully for the seniors as well as the other members of the band.

ORCHESTRA

On Tuesday and Thursday of every week, the High School Orchestra tunes their instruments under the direction of Mr. Ralph Faulk.

Being host for the Orchestra Festival, which was held April 24, 1953, was the main event of the year. This year the orchestras played all mass numbers. We, the seniors, wish the remaining members good luck during their school careers.

JR. BAND

Surprise, folks! It's just our junior band. This year the junior group was the biggest in the history of our school. As we went through the halls at the beginning of the school year we heard some miserable chords, but as the year slowly drew to a close they improved. Many of the members are looking forward to next year, when they may join senior band.

CHOIR

Do, Me, Sol, Do—This is the High School Choir, under the able direction of Mr. Ralph Faulk, warming up. This group has presented many concerts for school assemblies and other school activities. The festival this year was held at Norwalk, and the seniors sang in the High School Choir for the last time in their high school careers. The other members ended the year by singing for the Baccalaureate service held in May. The seniors of the Choir wish that the remaining members will have as much fun as they have had this year in Choir.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB

This year the Glee Club under the able direction of Miss Helen Wollam presented concerts at special school assemblies throughout the year. Their practice sessions were few, but they were always well prepared when called upon for a concert. The best of luck goes to all members remaining in the group. We hope they will have as successful a coming year as this year has been.

JR. HIGH CHORUS

These students represent our youngest singing group in school. They practiced hard for the concerts which they presented in the different school assemblies. This year the group was under the direction of Miss Helen Wollam. We, the seniors, wish to congratulate these people for the splendid work they have done.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

Won eight—Lost one—Co-Champs of the N.O.L.—Great season, Rams!

Yes, it was a great season from the first scorching day in August until the last tackle of the Carey game. To claim a co-championship, it took a great team and a winning spirit; but above all it took the patience and leadership of head coach Leo Strang and assistant Fenton Wolfe.

The Rams were the recipients of many honors at the close of the season. Seven members of the squad were chosen on the All-League "Dream Team": 1st team: Myron Rife, Dale Walterhouse, and Keith Quail; 2nd team: Tom Matteson, Dave Kuenzli, and Jerry Steiner. Honorable mention went to Tom Warfel. On December 11, 1952, the team was feted by the Varsity "U" at its annual banquet. After a delicious meal, the team lettermen were presented with miniature gold footballs in recognition of their work in winning the league co-championship. The Huffman awards for the most valuable lineman and backfield man were also given at this banquet to Tom Matteson and Myron Rife respectively.

Two members received All-Ohio honors in the sports magazine, "First and Ten." They were Myron Rife, 2nd team; and Dale Walterhouse, honorable mention.

Congratulations, Rams, for an excellent season, and best wishes to the squad of 1953!

YEA TEAM

"Hi ho, let's go, let's beat. . ." this is just one of the many famous chants led by our very capable and very attractive cheerleaders as they boosted the team on to many victories.

At the pep meetings the cheerleaders provided many unique and original stunts which were very well received by the student body.

June Delaplane (not pictured), who took over for Ruth Oney at the close of the football season, did a very excellent job during the basketball season without any previous varsity experience.

We thank these girls for their wonderful leadership during the past year.

SEASON

Due to various rumors, there was much uncertainty among the students of Upper High as to the outcome of the Rams' 1952-53 basketball schedule. As the season progressed, however, this uncertainty soon changed to admiration for the fighting Rams. The fine coaching of Leo Strang was a major factor in the Rams' record of 14 wins and 4 losses, which was one of the finest records ever completed in the basketball annals of Upper High.

During the course of the season, the Rams erased three high school records. Dick Stansbery set a new individual scoring record of 40 points against Galion. On this same night the team scored 84 points, which tied the school record previously set by the 1952-53 Rams against Crestline. The squad played a total of eleven consecutive games without defeat, smashing the previous school record of 8 consecutive wins.

The students of Upper High can be extremely proud of the 1952-53 Upper Sandusky High School basketball team for this excellent season.

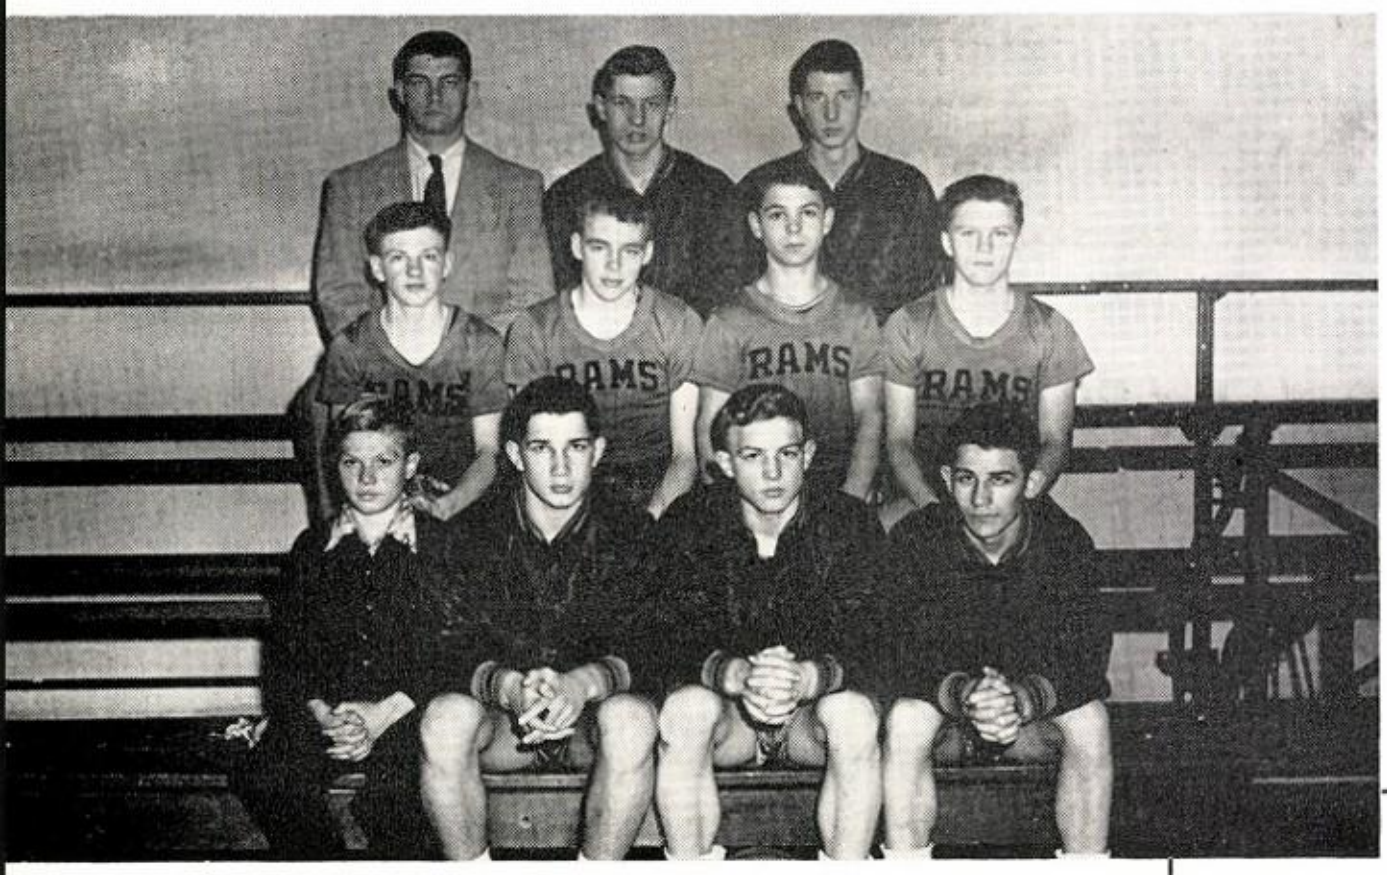
RESERVE BASKETBALL



Row 1—Larry Karg, mgr., Bill Stephens, David McClain, Ronald Eyestone. Row 2—Jon Grundtisch, Eugene Reed, Donald Eyestone, Dennis Gerber. Row 3—Coach Fenton Wolfe, David Miller, Joe Bolish.

The future of Upper Sandusky's basketball looks very bright as a result of the record of 10 wins and 7 losses compiled by the Reserve squad. The team was under the capable leadership of Coach Fenton Wolfe.

Although the young Rams did not have so good a record as that of the older and more experienced varsity they still possessed the same fighting spirit.

Unbeknown to many spectators, the reserve team was really an incentive to the varsity; for when the reserves won, the varsity inherited their winning spirt.

The members of this year's team wish all the luck in the world to the team of 1953-54!

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Do you remember—

When we were timid little freshmen? In the year of 1949, forty-four boys and forty-three girls started their high school life by electing the following officers to guide them: president, Carolyn Krebs; vice-president, Kenneth Wolfe; and secretary-treasurer, Dick Corbin. Our Advisors that year were Mr. Oliver and Mr. Conaway, who assisted us in planning our two gala parties—one in October, the other in April. We ended a busy year by sponsoring the dance after the Oak Hill-Upper basketball game.

Do you remember—

The year we were confident sophomores? Being more grown up gave us the courage to participate actively in sports and various school organizations, especially band, orchestra, and choir. We selected our class rings in 1950 and eagerly awaited the day when we would receive them. Our officers that year were Joan Johnson, president; Allen Pagnard, vice-president; and Ray Hall, secretary-treasurer. We also had two parties during our sophomore year which, with the help of our sponsors, Miss Earl and Mr. Shaffer, were great successes.

Do you remember—

We were so busy the next year that we hardly had a chance to get acquainted with ourselves and our teachers. In our junior year we chose Dick Corbin as president, Juanita Pfeifer as vice-president, and Darrel Plott as our secretary-treasurer. With the much needed help of our advisors, Mr. Strang and Mrs. Caves, we managed the refreshment stand at the football and basketball games, and held an informal party on February 21. We finally got our class rings, and were we proud to show them off! On November 30, we juniors presented The Fighting Littles, directed by Mr. Olin, to a large, appreciative audience. This year of 1951 also brought us many hard-worked-for scholastic and athletic awards. At the close of the school year the junior class gave the annual all-night prom in honor of the graduating seniors. With a beautifully decorated auditorium, we carried out the theme of the "Stork Club."

Do you remember—

Then all too soon we were wearing the smug looks of seniors. Our honored officers were David Mason, president; Tom Matteson, vice-president; Dick Stansbery, secretary; and David Markey, treasurer. The sponsors of the class of 1953 were Miss Neumeister, Mr. Borton, and Mr. Hood, who with the class enjoyed a "hard times" party on October 29.

We seniors were busy making big decisions this last year. We chose name cards, announcements, caps and gowns, the class color, flower, and motto.

The annual staff had fun and also troubles trying to meet all the deadlines so that the annual could be out on time. Under the direction of Mr. Olin, we had a wonderful time presenting our senior class play, Strange Boarders, on April 17.

Vespers were held in May, and perhaps for the first time we realized that our time here in U.S.H.S. was almost up. It was our privilege to attend the social high light of the year, the prom, given in our honor on May 25.

As the seventy-four members of the senior class of nineteen hundred and fifty-three received their diplomas on May 27, we sadly said goodbye to our happy days spent in Upper High, knowing that never again will they return.

I, Pauline Thomas, will my acting ability to Sandra Preble.

I, Leta Walton, will my distinguished height to Nancy Whalen.

I, Kay Worline, will, will, will—oh heck, I would have to be the last girl to will something. I guess I'll will my last name to anyone whose last name begins with A.

I, George Bowen, will my used football uniform to Dick Newell.

I, Albert Clinger, will any of my old flames to anyone who is planning to start a fire.

I, Richard Corbin, will all those foul shots I missed to Jim Brown, with the hope that he can make them.

I, William "Tiny" Corfman, will that wonderful nickname to Dick Hudson.

I, Ray Gottfried, will my love for shop tools to Fred Frey.

I, Mervin Henry, will probably never graduate.

I, David Herring, will my quiet ways to Jim Castanien.

I, Daniel Howard, will my deadly Chemistry experiments to next year's mad scientist.

I, Herman Hoy, will my simple name to Talmadge Wooten.

I, Kenneth Koehler, will my farming knowledge to Mr. Borton.

I, Thomas Koehler, will my lady-killer haircurler set to Calvin Bardon.

I, Jack Lawson, will my seat in Mr. Conaway's car to the seventh grade chain gang.

I, David Markey, will my late hours to Joe Bolish.

I, David Mason, will a loud speaking voice to the senior class president next year, because you'll certainly need it.

I, Thomas Matteson, will my football shoulder pads to General Ronnie Eyestone.

I, Charlie McCarthy, will my innocent look to Paul Matthews and my name to some dummy.

I, Bernard Memmingen, will my promising athletic career to Eddie Kuenzli.

I, Richard Moore, will my love for loud shirts to Bill Mahaffey.

I, Wayne Moses will my shyness of girls to David Krebs.

I, Richard Napoli, will my photography equipment to Miss Matteson.

I, Allen Pagnard, will my technique in directing choir to Mr. Faulk.

I, Neil Paulin, will my bass to Harold Plott.

I, Darrel Plott, will my excellent Spanish interpretation to Mrs. Tucker.

I, Robert Rall, will my "hot rod" to next year's daredevil.

I, Merle Raymond, will to Mr. Houpt the knowledge that my name is not "Raymond Merle".

I, William Rhoden, will my quiet ways to Joe Hehr.

I, Myron Rife, will my football abilities to next year's co-captains, Keith Quail and David Kuenzli.

I, Richard Roberts, will my Romeo qualities to Jerry Steiner.

I, Harold Schryer, will all the scrap paper that mysteriously collects in my locker back to a certain senior girl.

I, Harry Southward, will my scientific (?) mind back to science with the hope that they'll find something in there besides sawdust.

I, Richard Stansbery, will my presidential abilities to Dwight D. Eisenhower.

We, William Swartz and Shirley Bassler, will to any couple the ability to fight and still get along.

I, James Truesdell, will my ability to keep one girl to "Skeet" Warfel.

I, Dale Walterhouse, will my fighting spirit to the football team of 1953-54.

I, Richard Walton, will my ability to play A flat in the wrong position to Dick Jones.

I, Kenneth Wolfe, will my careful driving to Jim Shafer.

CLASS PROPHECY

Barlett Deep
Just off the coast of Cuba

Dear Friends and Classmates of the Class of '53:

I have just returned to my home in Bartlett Deep, Caribbean Sea, from my yearly visit to the United States. As I toured Washington, D. C., I happened to see the new president of the country, James P. Truesdell. During our talk he told me that he had appointed Dick Corbin as Secretary of State; Kenneth Wolfe, Secretary of the Treasury; Richard Roberts, Secretary of Agriculture; and Tom Matteson, Secretary of the Navy. By the way, Tom sent to the placement bureau for a secretary. Whom did he get? Rosalie Swinehart! Tom promptly took a vacation, heading for the Antarctic to cool off. Rosalie went to work for someone else. The feeling was mutual.

Naturally when we talk of the President, we think of the White House. The White House is getting its face lifted; it is being completely redecorated inside. Guess which company is doing the work! Why, Pat Chaney's, of course. She is known far and wide for her wonderful work. Harold Schryer, George Bowen and Bill Corfman are responsible for the magnificent painting (swing those brushes carefully, boys). Everyone in the nation is anxious to see how the redecorating is progressing, so R. Napoli (Dick to us) has been commissioned to take all pictures. He now has the most famous studio east of the Mississippi, because he makes portraits of only famous or wealthy people.

Speaking of fame, Merle Raymond and Harry Southward, brilliant scientists, have completed the atomic table by isolating an unknown element. It has been named "Merlarry" in honor of its co-discoverers.

Also making good in the national scene are Leta Walton and Marilyn Nachbar. Someone willed them lots of money, so they formed a partnership and bought out the Woolworth chain of 10c stores. The coast-to-coast chain is now known as "WALBAR'S". Nice going, girls.

Looking through a newspaper, I saw an advertisement for the smash-hit musical starring Ann Koehler, the noted Tetrapolitan opera star. Pauline Thomas and Dale Walterhouse are playing the supporting roles.

Going to the South, namely Florida, I found that Shirleyann Eyestone and Natalie Stephens own several huge hotels. At the one I visited, Pat Best was in charge of the bakery; Richard Moore was the head waiter; Joanne Gillen and Doris Hablitzel were managing the drugstore curio shop; and Donna (Davis) Rowland is the hat check girl. The terrific all-girl dance orchestra, the Gibson Gals, was playing that night. Corinne certainly plays a hot trumpet.

Heading back to Upper Sandusky, I decided to visit dear old U.S.H.S. I found several of our classmates teaching school. Meriam Krichbaum, the algebra teacher, reports that Kay (Worline) and Dave Markey's oldest daughter never understood that "x" doesn't mean "kisses". Joyce Kuenzli, the local music teacher, told me that Kay and Dave's three girls sing like birds, appearing in public as the "Markey Maids". They take after their mom, I guess.

Margaret Swartz, Rosa Smith, and Donna Lind are teaching in the new elementary school. Donna has Shirley (Bassler) and Bill Swartz's fourth child in the sixth grade.

Darrel Plott, the coach at U.S.H.S., revealed his new secret weapon, Sam Rife, the son of Maxine (Sammet) and Myron Rife. Rumors say that Sam has been interested in football even since Myron put one in his hands the day Sam was born.

Speaking of the hospital, Wyandot Memorial is now a six-story building, and the town has grown so that the hospital is way within the city limits. Tom Koehler and Albert Clinger are practicing medicine there now, and Carolyn Krebs, Juanita Pfeifer, and Iris Swartz are nurses. Kathleen Logsdon is the receptionist, while Zennie Drew is the bookkeeper.

Lois Diebert and Shirley Morris are operating a charm school, telling their secrets on how to charm men. Faith McWilliams, the great authority on manners, has dedicated her new book, "Mac's Manners" to Lois and Shirley. Another book used by the girls is "How to Take Advantage of Your Opportunities", or "Love and Learn", by the noted heart mender, Ruth Oney.

Our classmates have really gone into business for themselves! Mervin Henry, owner of "Farm Dairy", is really rolling in, uh, making piles of, 'er, well, he's quite wealthy! His helpers on the farm are Ray Gottfried, Neil Paulin, and Kenny Koehler.

Bill Rhoden now owns a printing house which turns out all kinds of greeting cards, etc. Bonnie (Rowland) Long is one of his super saleswomen. Virginia Cornish and Ola Hoopes are Bill's secretary and general manager, respectively.

Dave Mason is now the city's best lawyer. He has won all of his cases so far. Part of his success is based upon his efficient secretary, Jan Swartz.

While walking down Main Street, I passed Joan's Dress Shoppe, owned by Joan Johnson. Her pleasing personality has drawn so many customers that Arlene Kent is kept busy keeping the stock on sale; and Shirley Swartz, one of her clerks, has lost a lot of weight from being constantly on the run.

One of the busiest concerns of the community is the Jack Lawson Construction Co., which builds most of the news homes. Richard Walton and David Herring are the head carpenters, Robert Rall is the plumber, Allen Pagnard, the electrician, and Wayne Moses is the mason.

Dick Stansbery, who started with one supermarket, now has a chain of Supreme Supermarkets across the Midwest. He has all fine quality merchandise and is better known than Kroger.

As I was leaving to return to my home in the sea, I stopped at a fuel station. Bernie Menningen put in the fuel, Charlie McCarthy gave my jetmobile a quick cleaning, and Herman Hoy supplied me with an interesting pamphlet entitled "What to See and Do While in Upper Sandusky". They really have "super service with a smile".

As I sped away from the United States toward my submarine, I wished that I didn't have to stay in a damp climate, so that I could keep in closer touch with the U.S.H.S. class of '53. However, on my annual pilgrimage, I hope to see each and every one of you.
